Invitation letter to MUNLawS 2023

Ljubljana, 30 June 2023

Dear Mr or Mrs,

Between December 1st and 3rd this year, the 11th Model UN conference – MUNLawS 2023, will take place at the Faculty of Law, University of Ljubljana, organized by students under the mentorship of Prof. Dr. Vasilka Sancin. We are honored to announce that this year our project has received financial support from the NATO Public Diplomacy Division. In light of the rapidly changing global circumstances that we are currently observing with great concern, this year's conference will focus on migration issues, the NATO-EU partnership, and the Iranian crisis. The theme of this year's conference is "Lessons from the past, actions for the future."

MUNLawS International Conference attracts more than 150 students from over 30 countries around the world each year. Through its mission of empowering youth through the simulation of work processes in the most important international organizations, we aim to familiarize both domestic and foreign high school and university students with their operations, values, and goals.

Considering that the MUNLawS conference represents an exceptional opportunity and a unique platform for young engaged individuals, including both high school students and university students, we believe it is particularly important to reach as many people as possible with our invitation to join our conference. We cordially invite you to attend the conference along with a group of students from your school or university .

High school students, as well as university students, are welcome to the MUNLawS conference. This year, we will be simulating a total of 10 committees and bodies within the UN, EU, and NATO. Upon registration for the conference, each delegate will be assigned a country and committee. Their task is to represent their assigned country's position on a predetermined topic during the simulation of the designated committee. The topics for discussion by the delegates this year have already been determined and are accessible on our website.

Allow us once again to cordially invite you to our conference. We would be delighted to gather a diverse group of engaged individuals ready for action at MUNLawS! For more information on registration, please visit our website. We remain available and are happy to assist you in the process of obtaining all the necessary documents for entry into the Republic of Slovenia and your esteemed participation in MUNLawS 2023.

May you have any questions, we remain at your further disposal.

Sincerely yours,

Rok Šarič
